

The European Urban Institute

The place to discuss urban transformations – sharing knowledge and experiences

What is the European Urban Institute?

A promotion of 20 auditors

Participants: top executives of international, national or local administrations, senior practitioners, elected officials

6 sessions 6 different cities

Study visits, discussion with local experts and practitioners, round tables, debriefings

A 2 years training cycle

To fit the tight schedules of top executives

One transversal key issue

A multidisciplinary approach to have a comprehensive view of urban issue

EUI

Independent body to share knowledge, innovations, and to critically discuss and analyse urban issues

Programme (under construction)

Key issue 2021-2022

Social cohesion

Registration

July-December 2020

Provisional planning

February 2021

The Paris region: towards an integrated or fragmented global region?

May 2021

Geneva: a cross border metropolitan region

September 2021

Leipzig: Successful adaptation to extreme dynamics – from shrinkage to re-growth.

March 2022

Ravenna/Bologna: European cities coping with tourism.

May 2022

The case of a city in an emerging country

September 2022

To be determined

Admission

Participants

Top executives and senior practitioners of public and private sectors

Reasons to enroll

Extend professional network
Explore business opportunities
Meet international experts

Price

15 000€ to 25 000€
(Provisional numbers)

Registrations start in June 2020

Antoine Frémont
antoine.fremont@ifsttar.fr
+33 (0)1 81 66 80 55

Pierre Perrin
pierre.perrin@univ-paris-est.fr
+33 (0)1 45 92 65 19